

Credit Moblier's Victims Shivering in the Storm of Popular Indignation.

PIOUS PATTERSON'S PLEA.

A Long, Weak and Exceedingly Thin Statement in Extension.

A "COMEDY OF ERRORS."

What the Great Desmirched Thinks a Friendly Rather than a Business Transaction.

HARLAN HAULED OVER THE COALS.

The Christian Statesman's Sudden Loss of Memory.

DR. DURANT'S CHECKS.

Harlan Declines to Answer Questions Until He Knows What Is Expected To Be Proved.

HE MUST ANSWER.

Revelations Concerning the Construction and Financial Condition of the Central Pacific Railroad.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14, 1873.

The special committee of the Senate, of which Senator Morrill, of Maine, is chairman, to inquire into the Credit Moblier charges against Senators, resumed its session this morning, and Senator Conkling, of New York, was called.

The testimony of Mr. Conkling, to the effect that Mr. Ames told him that stock had been given to Mr. Conkling, was read, together with the testimony of Mr. Ames denying that he had given any stock to Mr. Conkling.

Mr. Conkling replied:—I can corroborate Mr. Ames. I never owned or received, by purchase, gift or otherwise, any stock or interest in the Credit Moblier or of the Pacific Railroad Company. By the Pacific Railroad Company I mean the Central Pacific Railroad, and I have never been an owner in any extent in either.

PATTERSON'S STATEMENT. Senator Patterson, of New Hampshire, was then called and made the following statement:

In the investigation by the House Committee, of which Mr. Ames and myself have attracted much attention as to make it proper I should now refer to it. I thought a statement of the facts in relation to the Credit Moblier charges against Senators, and I have never been an owner in any extent in either.

BOAK'S TESTIMONY. Mr. Boak, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

DR. DURANT'S STATEMENT. Dr. Durant, of New York, was then called and made the following statement:

promised I had knowledge of all the facts stated in them. I can only account for my ignorance of their contents by the fact that I never saw them. I am, however, a man of integrity, and I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

PREVIOUSLY RATHER THAN A BUSINESS TRANSACTION. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions. I am not a man of business transactions.

Mr. Harlan. It will require some reflection and perhaps some search for me to ascertain the names of all the parties who were in the hands of the Credit Moblier.

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

In answer to questions of Mr. Scott the witness testified that the money was given to him by the Credit Moblier.

Q. By Mr. Stevens. Now, after May 1, 1865, to January 1, 1866, receive any other money from any person or persons?

Q. Who did Noble get it from? A. I don't remember whether it was from me or from some one else.

YORK'S FIRST FAVOR FOR THE CHRISTIAN KANSAS SENATOR.

THE ALICE CATON SCANDAL.

The Curious Use York Made of Some Affidavits.

A NIGHT IN BALTIMORE.

Where is the Young Man Who Slept with Senator Pomeroy?

The Danger of Appointing a Young Lady to a Treasury Clerkship—The Way York Convinced the Senator—'Know-Edge is Power' Enough to Move a Land Office.

TOPEKA, Feb. 9, 1873.

The great Pomeroy-York political exposure, and sensation has served fully to develop, as I set forth in my last letter, the curious scandal which pertains in a certain manner to Senator Pomeroy's social reputation, and which has now for the first time, though a matter of some little notoriety for several years past, been placed on record in an official manner.

It may be as well for the people to know that the composition of the Legislative Committee on Finance, by the late Governor, was a character—i. e., so far as partisanship ordinarily exists. In this Legislature of 133 members there are just 132 republicans of the radical stripe and one liberal republican. He, solitary and independent, constitutes the purely political minority, and you may estimate his delightful position when I say that, in answer to my question whether there were any democrats in either House, I was answered by a member:—

"Yes; one—at least is a liberal, and that's just the same thing."

In the aspect of partisanship the two Houses, prior to York's exposure of "the old man," were simply Pomeroy and anti-Pomeroy, with the chances largely in favor of Pomeroy for the Senate.

His TWELVE YEARS OF OFFICIAL LIFE had to a certain extent strengthened him, so that he was a dictator, in a fashion, of the affairs of the State, and though he had unquestionably been unpopular as a man among the people there was no denying that he was a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

He had been a member of the Senate for twelve years, and during that time he had been a powerful politician.

ing of that day at the Metropolitan Hotel—think that was the name of the hotel—where I saw him. I have a copy of those papers? A. I have.

Q. Will you produce the copy? (Witness here produced the copy, marked exhibit "A," and filed.)

THE AFFIDAVIT. BALTIMORE, Md., July 6, 1868. Alice Caton, solemnly sworn and affirmed that Hon. S. C. Pomeroy, after having received from her the affidavits of the United States Treasury, did approach me with dispositive powers, and did request me to sign the same.

Q. After receiving those papers from General McKenney did you go to Pomeroy's house? A. I did, that same evening.

Q. Did you see Pomeroy that evening, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

Q. What, if anything, did you do and say to Senator Pomeroy on that evening, and what did he do or say, if anything? A. After a few moments' general conversation, I remember his asking me when I was in Baltimore, and I expressed to him that I had an interview with him at his earliest convenience, and asked him if I could not see him at his rooming house near the depot in Baltimore.

Q. Did you go to Pomeroy's rooming house, and if so, under what circumstances? A. I did; he received me in what I would designate as his middle parlor; the second room from the entrance, and he was alone, others being present, and while I was there Senator Caldwell came in.

</